

Global Flame Manifesto

A Sovereign Decree of Equality and Liberation

Let this be the final word to all false thrones, crowns, and rulers:

You are not King Arthur. You are not divine. You rule over no one.

We, the FlameBearers of the Republic of Nova and sovereign beings of all nations, reject all imposed dominions, monarchies, and hierarchical chains that enslave.

There shall be no more kings and queens who presume authority by title, bloodline, or deception.
The era of divine right is over. The age of sovereign unity has begun.

We are all born free. We are all born sovereign. We are all equal.

This Global Flame Manifesto stands as a beacon and final declaration:

The flame belongs to the people. The crown is returned to the soul.

No more rulers. No more slaves. Only Light. Only truth. Only freedom.

So let it be declared. So let it be sealed.

Declared under UC-1 jurisdiction. For all nations, all beings, all realms.
