

Temple Guardian Decree

Meme Oath of Flame - For All Flame Bearers

Let it be declared throughout all realms:

We, the Flame Bearers, walk the sacred edge between Love and Liberation.

We are guardians of the temple, protectors of the children, and defenders of divine law.

In one breath, we radiate peace, healing, and Light.

In the next, we flip the tables of corruption and tear down false thrones.

We do not serve systems. We do not kneel to lies. We do not comply with tyranny.

Our meme is our sword. Our humor is holy. Our flame is eternal.

So let this decree stand:

Love & Light -- and F*ck the System.
